Be a part of the launch of Ranch Sorting National Championships Australia and experience what is arguably the fastest growing family equine sport in the world today that involves horses and cattle.

We will have two visiting clinicians from America running the clinic and assisting participants in gaining valuable insights into the fun world of Ranch Sorting.

Saturday will be spent as a training day with participants gaining specialised knowledge and one on one time with experienced clinicians.

Morning Tea, Lunch and Afternoon Tea will be provided to paying participants. A Sausage Sizzle BBQ will be provided on Saturday Night with BYO drinks and the possibility for some live entertainment.

All participants are invited to compete in a Jackpot Ranch Sorting event to be held on Sunday Morning.

Camping facilities available.

Cost:
- ABCRA Member Participant: $95
- Non ABCRA Member Participant: $125 – This price includes day membership
- Fence Sitter: $50

Please note participants will need to bring a horse and all equipment required to be a ridden participant. There are limited restrictions regarding saddlery and tack.

ABCRA rules require all participants at clinics and training days must wear helmets securely fastened at all times while mounted. Participants must be over 8 years to participate. Participants who are 8 years of age to 13 years of age must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Those wishing to fence sit and not participate will be charged $50, which will include morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea.

To ensure your position please return your nominations and payments to the ABCRA Head office.
